The Dignity for All Students Act

The Dignity for All Students Act defines harassment as the creation of a hostile environment by conduct or by verbal threats, intimidation or abuse that has or would have the effect of unreasonably or substantially interfering with a students' educational performance, opportunities or benefits, or mental, emotional or physical well-being or conduct, verbal threats, intimidation or abuse that reasonably causes or would reasonably be expected to cause a student to fear for his or her physical safety. Such conduct, verbal threats, intimidation or abuse based on a person's actual or perceived: race, color, weight, national origin, ethnic group, religion, religious practice, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender (which includes a person's actual or perceived sex as well as gender identity and expression.

Employees who witness harassment, bullying or discrimination have a mandatory reporting duty of alleged policy violations. No later than one (1) school day after witnessing or receiving a report of such conduct you must orally report it to the building principal, the superintendent or a designee. Within two (2) days you must follow this up with a written report. The principal, superintendent, or designee will lead and investigation through to its conclusion.

Remediation must be prompt and reasonable calculated to end the harassment, bullying or discrimination. Methods of remediation must prevent recurrence and insure the safety of targeted students. The methods selected must vary to fit the nature of the behavior, developmental age of students, and the history of problem behaviors.

Attention must also be provided to the instigator of the action to educate and change their behavior or responses.

Dutchess BOCES is required to provide all school employees, students and parents with a written or electronic copy of the school district's policies, in a plan-language summary, at least once each year.
